Black History Month 2019

Black Migrations

New Destinations, New Realities

FEBRUARY 1-28
Ellis Library
Exhibition: “Black Migrations”
Contact: Joan Stack (stackj@shsmo.org), State Historical Society.

FEBRUARY 1
4 p.m.
Munford Hall, Room 133
Featuring the many sociocultural roles of Natalia Bolívar, an ethnographer and practitioner of Afro-Cuban religions, a direct descendant of Simon Bolívar. Contact: Juanamaria Cordones-Cook (CordonesCookJ@missouri.edu), Sponsors: Afro-Romance Institute and Cambio Center

FEBRUARY 4
4 p.m.
Room 114A, Ellis Library
Exodus: Images of Black Migration in Missouri and Beyond, 1866-1940
Presentation on the images and other items in the Black History Month display in Ellis Library on Black Migration in Missouri. Contact: Joan Stack (stackj@shsmo.org) and Paula Roper (roperp@missouri.edu) Sponsors: State Historical Society and Black History Month Committee.

FEBRUARY 7
National Black HIV/AIDS Awareness Day
For more info, see https://hiv.gov/events/awareness-days/black

FEBRUARY 7
5-7 p.m.
Jesse Wrench Auditorium
MU’s Indie POETS presents: My Black is Not Your Black
An evening of poetry. Contact: Erielle Jones (ejbn8@mail.missouri.edu). Sponsors: Indie POETS and Black History Month Committee

FEBRUARY 7-8
Day 1: 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Gillette/Ware Room, Memorial Union
Day 2: 9 a.m.-3 p.m. Arvath E. Strickland Room, Memorial Union
Black Migrations Symposium
This two-day conference will examine black migrations to investigate relocations within and beyond the U.S. Contact: Davie Dunley (dunleyd@missouri.edu). Sponsors: National Science Foundation, Department of Statistics, and Department of Black Studies. Symposium website: https://blackstudies.missouri.edu/feature/2019-black-migrations-symposium

FEBRUARY 11-18
Jesse Hall Auditorium
Undergraduate Visual Art and Design Showcases student work open during regular business hours
Keynote speaker: Brandon “Bmike” Odums, February 15, 6:30-6:30 p.m. Jesse Auditorium
Odums is a highly-sought after visual artist and activist who uses a variety of media to tell stories to bridge reality with possibilities and history with the future. Contact: Linda Blockus (BlockusL@missouri.edu). Sponsor: Office of Undergraduate Studies

FEBRUARY 15
4-6 p.m.
Whitmore Recital Hall
Jazz and Migration, a talk and performance by Dr. Kwami Coleman
Contact Tristan Ivory (ivoryt@missouri.edu) Sponsors: School of Music and Black History Month Committee.

FEBRUARY 18
5 p.m.
Stoter Lounge, Memorial Union
32nd Annual Lloyd L. Gaines Scholarship Banquet
Guest speaker Wesley Bell, St. Louis Scholar. Contact: Daive Dunley (dunleyd@missouri.edu). Sponsors: Kinder Institute for Constitutional Democracy, Department of History, and Black History Month Committee

FEBRUARY 20
5:30-7 p.m.
The Women’s Center, MU Student Center
Making Freedom: How the Enslaved Undermined Slavery
A 2019 Black History Month Lecture by Dr. Richard Blackett, Vanderbilt University. Contact: Daive Dunley (dunleyd@missouri.edu). Sponsors: Kinder Institute for Constitutional Democracy, Department of History, and Black History Month Committee

FEBRUARY 21
5-7 p.m.
Leadership Auditorium, MU Student Center
Black Women in Activism: Addressing Racial Health Disparities
A panel of healthcare experts discuss how they have and are addressing racial health disparities within a global context. Contact: Erianna S. Woods (ew2mf@mail.missouri.edu) Sponsors: Reproaction and Black History Month Committee

FEBRUARY 24
4-6 p.m.
School of Music, Division of Inclusion, Equity, and Community
The Women’s Center, MU Student Center
Race, Sex, and Vengeance: Imagining Cuba’s Martin Maria Delgado
A 2019 Black History Month Lecture by Dr. Conrad James, University of Houston. Delgado was a late nineteenth-century Afro-Cuban writer and a leading political figure during the Cuban Republic. Contact: Adriana Mendez (mandeza@missouri.edu). Sponsors: Afro-Romance Institute and Black History Month Committee.

FEBRUARY 28
6-8 p.m.
Friends Room, Columbia Public Library
Black History Month Trivia Night
Contact: Lauren Williams (lwilliams@dbrl.org) and Paula Roper (roperp@missouri.edu) Sponsors: Daniel Boone Regional Library, University Libraries, and Columbia Honda

MARCH 1
4-6 p.m.
Arts & Culture Bldg, Rm. 113
Ana Hendieta: Afro-Atlantic Connections A 2019 Afro-Romance Institute Spring 2019 Lecture by Dr. Conrad James, University of Houston. Contact: Adriana Mendez (mandez@missouri.edu). Sponsors: Afro-Romance Institute

MARCH 5
7-8:30 p.m.
Missouri Theatre
Distinguished Lecture with Dr. Teresal Trent
Author of The Awakened Woman - A Guide for Remembering and Reigniting Our Sacred Dreams: Contact: Maria Metz (matzmz@missouri.edu). Sponsors: College of Education: The Bridge, Department of Educational, School & Counseling Psychology, College of Engineering, Office of Graduate Studies, School of Music, Division of Inclusion, Diversity & Equity, Department of Women and Gender Studies, Studies, Department of Black Studies, Daniel Boone Regional Library, Wontanara, Black History Month Committee

MARCH 7
4:30 p.m.
Jesse Wrench Auditorium
An Evening with Feminist Negroes Intersectionality, expert, author & award-winning blogger. Contact: Tiffany Horton (hortontj@missouri.edu) Sponsors: Department of Women’s and Gender Studies

VOY THE ONLINE CALENDAR

 Все события открыты для публики и бесплатны, до тех пор, пока не иначе указано.