Black History Month 2017
Focus on Black Education

Fri, Feb 3
2:30pm // Performing Arts Center, Battle High School
[Performance]
Focus on Education: And Still I Rise...

Sponsors: Peace Perspectives Lecture Endowment of the Peace Studies Program, Black Studies

Wed, Feb 8, 7pm // Ellis Library, 114A
[Lecture/Discussion]
From #BlackLivesMatter to Black Liberation
Speaker: Keeanga-Yamatta Taylor

Sponsors: Peace Perspectives Lecture Endowment of the Peace Studies Program, Black Studies

Wed, Feb 15
6pm // TBA
[Panel]
What Does it Look Like to Have #BlackLivesMatter in Schools?
Sponsors: National Alliance of Black School Educators

Fri, Feb 17
7pm // United Methodist Church
[Concert]
Lift Every Voice:
Oakwood University Aeolians and LBC Gospel Choir

Sponsors: Division of Inclusion, Diversity & Equity

Mon, Feb 20
7pm // Leadership Auditorium
[Keynote Lecture]
Black Leadership at Mizzou
Speaker: Payton Head; Discussant: Sean Earl

Sponsors: College of Education

Tues, Feb 21
6pm // Gaines-Oldham Black Culture Center
[Townhall/Panel]
I Mean No Disrespect: An Honest Dialogue Amongst African/African Americans/West Indians
Sponsors: African Students Association, Legion of Black Collegians, Gaines-Oldham Black Culture Center

Wed, Feb 22
5:30pm // Ragtag Cinema
[Film/Discussion]
School Daze (A Spike Lee Joint)
Sponsors: Ragtag, Dept of Black Studies

Fri, Feb 24
6pm // Missouri Theater
[Performance Celebration]
Monica Hand & Nina Simone: Please Don’t Let Me be Misunderstood
Music/Poetry/Memories
Co-Sponsors: ABGPS, Black Studies, WGST, Theater, English, Stephens College, RaceMatters, One Mic, Indie Poets

Tues, Feb 28
6pm // Ellis Library, 114A
[Trivia Contest]
Black History Month Trivia
Sponsor: MU Ellis Library

All events are free and open to the public